Light, bright yellow-gold. Mineral-driven pear, orange and floral qualities on the intensely perfumed nose, along with a hint of iodine. Silky, focused and lively in the mouth, offering sharply defined citrus and orchard fruit flavors complemented by suggestions of fennel, sweet butter and honeysuckle. Shows excellent concentration as well as energy, and finished minerally, precise and very long, with repeating floral and pear notes.

The 2019 Chardonnay Rosemary's Vineyard is one of the more racy, vibrant wines in the lineup, and it's going to need bottle age. Offering up lots of salinity in its citrus, spicy oak, and floral aromatics, it hits the palate with medium-bodied richness, high yet integrated acidity, good mid-palate depth, and outstanding length. Do your best to hide bottles for at least 2-3 years.
